PREFACE

This report is one in a series on Soviet Ground Force and Logistic installations being prepared for a DIA/CIA Panel. The series is being coordinated, published and disseminated by NPIC. The photographic analysis is being performed by the NPIC Photographic Analysis Group, the CIA Photographic Intelligence Division (NPIC), and the Production Center 1P1c (DIA). The photographic analysis for this particular report was performed by the Production Center 1P1c.

In the interest of uniformity, the titles and letter designators for the facilities observed at these installations are identical with those appearing in the project requirement. When a specific facility is not observed both its title and letter designator are omitted in the report.

Titles and letter designators for the various facilities are as follows: (A) railroad service, (B) road service, (C) landing strips, (D) administrative and troop housing areas, (E) storage areas, (F) ammunition storage areas, (G) POL storage areas, (H) other buildings and facilities, (J) equipment storage/maintenance areas, (K) athletic fields, (L) small arms firing ranges, (M) driver training areas, (N) tank assault gun firing ranges, (P) flat trajectory firing ranges, (Q) artillery emplacements (batteries), (R) infantry or combined arms field training areas or courses, (S) special training facilities, (T) unidentified facilities or tracking activity.

SUMMARY

A possible military barracks area is located in the southern sector of Uryupinsk (Figure 1). It occupies 22 acres and contains a total of 29 buildings, including probable administration buildings, possible barracks, possible general storage buildings, several miscellaneous structures, and an athletic field. Directly southeast, a second area of approximately 10 acres contains 53 buildings, including probable administration, possible general storage, and miscellaneous buildings. Possible two- or three-family quarters form the south boundary of the area (Figures 2 and 3).

Uryupinsk and the surrounding area has been covered by Missions. There are no significant changes apparent between

Although possibly a military barracks area, the heterogeneous building shapes and building placement, the central location within the city, and the absence of nearby training areas are features generally not associated with the strong signatures of military barracks areas.

DESCRIPTION OF INSTALLATION

Railroad Service

A single-track rail line from Povorino terminates at the north end of Uryupinsk.

Road Service

The installation is served by city streets.

Administrative and Troop Housing Areas
